

Jefferson County Public Library Public Use of Library Bulletin Boards Policy

Policy Statement

To enrich the informational, educational, and recreational quality of life for all people in Jefferson County, the Library will provide free bulletin board space to community-based organizations and agencies for posting notices of public interest. In so doing, the library serves as a community-based information agency for the citizens of Jefferson County.

The Library's display of public announcements and flyers by agencies outside of Jefferson County Public Library does not constitute sponsorship or endorsement of the policies, views, or beliefs of the group.

1. The County Librarian assigns the Deputy County Librarian authority and responsibility to interpret the policy and assign staff to place, remove and monitor notices and announcements appearing on the bulletin board.
2. All Jefferson County Public Libraries will make available to its users bulletin board space for the dissemination of library and community sponsored activities as space allows. The Library Manager of each library determines available space.
3. The Library Manager of each facility is responsible for the administration of this policy.
