

Jefferson County Public Library Library Security Video Policy

Policy Statement

Library video cameras and the digital recordings of camera views are used solely for purposes of library facility management and internal security. The recordings, which are confidential by state law, cannot be viewed by anyone other than authorized library personnel except when pursuant to a subpoena, court order or when otherwise required by state law.