

Jefferson County Public Library Decentralized Library Policy

Policy Statement

The Library serves the needs of citizens located in the 774 square miles of Jefferson County. In response to its size and topography, the Library has divided Jefferson County into geographical service areas and provides a full service library for each area.

The Library Board of Trustees delegates responsibility to the Executive Director for implementation of this concept in all areas of library operations including facilities and the library collection.