

September 2010

Especially for ADULTS

Choices are tough today. The Library makes it easy with an abundance of free programs and events.

Arvada

Monday Night Book Group

7 p.m. Sept. 13

The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks by Rebecca Skloot

Belmar

Thursday Night Book Group

7 p.m. Sept. 2

Dalliance by Diana Burg

Author Diana Burg will attend this discussion.

Art Wall

Emanuel Martinez – Paintings

As a painter, sculptor, and muralist, Emanuel Martinez occupies an outstanding status among nationally known artists. Three of his artworks are in the permanent collection of the National Museum of American Art, Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. Emanuel has won numerous awards, and participated in prestigious invitational shows. Included in his many public works is the “Fallen Firefighters Memorial” just outside of the Belmar Library.

Columbine

Tuesday Afternoon Book Group

2 p.m. Sept. 7

Shadow of the Wind by Carlos Ruiz Zafon

Evergreen

Thursday Night Book Group

7 p.m. Sept. 9

Tenderness of Wolves by Stef Penney

Exhibit Case

Santos – Wood carvings by Jay Seale

Art Exhibit

Folk Art Paintings by May Johnson

Golden

Beyond the Headlines

America’s Pastime: Baseball

7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 2

Join Active Minds® as we trace the history of baseball from Abner Doubleday to Barry Bonds. Hear some of the legendary stories of the game, including the Merkle Incident, the 1919 Chicago Black Sox, the Curse of the Bambino and others. We will discuss Jackie Robinson and the role of the Negro Leagues, as well as how the modern era has been affected by the use of steroids. Bring your own favorite baseball story to share with the group!

Tuesday Night Book Group

7 p.m. Sept. 28

The Things They Carried by Tim O’Brien

Great Decisions

7 p.m. Wednesdays, Sept. 1, 15 and 29

Great Decisions is the global affairs discussion program of the Foreign Policy Association (FPA). For more than 50 years the FPA has been sponsoring this program and publishing an annual briefing book, which provides a variety of viewpoints and background on each topic to be discussed. Each participant will receive a briefing book. Reservations are not required.

UFOs

6:30-8:30 p.m. Wednesdays, Sept. 8 and 22

Work on and talk about your UFOs-Unfinished Objects. Crafters of all types are welcome.

Intercambio/Language Exchange

7-8:30 p.m. Tuesdays, Sept. 7 and 21

Join us for an opportunity to improve Spanish/English skills in an informal setting.

Art Display

Sept. 1-15: Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum

Display Table

Jefferson County Public Health, "Emergency Preparedness"

Golden Farmers' Market

Saturdays through Oct. 2

The Golden Farmers' Market is held in the library's west parking west parking lot until 1 p.m. every Saturday. Parking may be a challenge on those days. We apologize for any inconvenience.

Lakewood

Tuesday Night Book Group

7 p.m. Sept. 14

A Reliable Wife by Robert Goolrick

Tuesday Afternoon Book Group

1 p.m. Sept. 28

The Mapmakers Wife: A True Tale of Love, Murder and Survival in the Amazon by Robert Whitaker

Intercambio/Language Exchange

7-8:30 p.m. Mondays, Sept. 13 and 27

Join us for an opportunity to improve Spanish/English skills in an informal setting.

Display Case

Miniatures

Standley Lake

Thursday Night Book Group

7 p.m. Sept. 9

The Elegance of the Hedgehog by Muriel Barbery

Wheat Ridge

Thursday Morning Book Group

9 a.m. Sept. 16

The Power of One by Bryce Courtenay

Bonfils Blood Drive

The Bonfils Bloodmobile will be available at the following library parking lots. Call 303-363-2300 to make an appointment or register online at www.bonfils.org.

Golden Library 10-11:40 a.m. and 1-3 p.m. Monday, Sept. 20

Standley Lake Library 10-11:40 a.m. and 1-3:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 20

Evergreen Library 1-6 p.m. Monday, Sept. 27

Columbine Library 1-6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 28

