Project Runway: Zombie Style

The Fashion Zombie Apocalypse comes to the Belmar Library this summer!

Dust off your best funeral shrouds and burial suits for a feet-shufflin'-good time at the Belmar Library. Teens will form teams to design the best zombie costume and perform a fashion show with their undead creations. A panel of guest judges will choose the most creative and ghoulish costumes.

Reservations are not required. Since space is limited, participants are encouraged to arrive early. Supplies will be provided, but please bring any costume finery that you are "dying" to use
